The rate war among milroads in the northwest which has now extended as far as Oregon and Washington, is causing much talk in railway circles in San Francisco. The war is a re-sult of the dissolution of the western states passenger association. Central and southwestern lines are not yet affected, but the impression seems to be general that rate-cutting will soon be inaugurated by them. It is publicly stated that the Union Pacific is offer ing a cut of $6 from there to Chicago. nd that a like reduction or more is probably being made from Chicago to California points. Representatives of some eastern lines say the Southern Pacific company will have to meet whatever cuts the Northern company
